FROM OUR CHATTY CHIEF

Brandon Fessler
'96-'97 Lodge Chief

The saying is true, time does fly like the wind. It has already been two months since the lodge officers and I have been running the lodge. We have used this summer to do many exciting things for our brothers, so be on the watch for the rest of the year.

The training conference is coming up, take advantage of this opportunity. Their will be many classes on Saturday, on a variety of subjects. All of the lodge chairmen for the entire year will be there. Come and ask them questions about their events. For more information, see the rest of the Legend.

During all this excitement don't forget we must still include all of our brothers who have not registered for this year. We are doing many things that they may not want to miss out on.

Remember you elected the lodge officers. We are always there if you have any questions at all. Don't be afraid to call.

Yours in Sacred Brotherhood,

Brandon Fessler

NATIONAL CONFERENCE
ORDER OF THE ARROW
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

"See The Dream. Live The Adventure"

NOAC WAS AWESOME!

This year's NOAC tour was excellent! Our lodge contingent took a tremendous tour, stopping in New York, Philadelphia, and Washington DC. We also stopped at an impressive amusement park in Ohio. After that we met up with some more people from our lodge and the rest of the arrowmen from across the nation at the National Conference at Indiana University. The conference is an experience that will not soon be forgotten. There were shows, activities, classes, and all sorts of exciting things to do. And the food was great!

Start getting ready for the '98 conference in Iowa, everyone's invited. The lodge is starting to put the tour together already, and it is looking awesome!

DEEP THOUGHTS FROM DAVE

a message from David Halliday

One of my favorite sayings is, "If it is to be done, it is up to me." The influence of all of us is more than we ever dream it to be. We influence those around us in small ways that change our lives - theirs and our own.

The purpose of the Order is to influence others; to service, to be cheerful, to achieve and to do many other things.

This year make a difference in the life of someone else. Bring a friend, say thanks, offer help, spend time rather than money, and be involved. As Dr. Goodman said about the OA, it is a thing of the spirit.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

←TRADING POST→

The Scout Service Center has the following patches for sale:

40th Anniversary - limited to two per person (until they are gone) at $5.00 per patch. About 1/2 have been sold.

NOAC - there are some left over NOAC contingent flaps. First come, first served at $5.00 per flap.

Centennial Set - there are still some of the Centennial sets available - flap and shoulder strip - at $8.00 per set. No limit on purchase.

When the above flaps are gone they will not be reissued. Might be worth a trip to the service center to keep current. If you are going to the Jamboree next year, they make great trading patches.

←NEW EDITOR→

Josh Jorgensen, Lodge Secretary, announces the appointment of Andrew Russell as the new editor of the Legend. Andrew is the current chapter chief of Chapter 28 and recently attended the National Conference.

The new editor is interested in getting your news and views in each copy of the newsletter.

You can reach him at 10894 Whirlaway Lane, Sandy UT 84092 or at 571-6687. If your chapter isn't represented in this issue, contact the editor.

←CHAPTER TRAINING CONFERENCE→

The lodge program kick-off for the coming year will be held on September 7, 1996, at 7:30 am at Pine Canyon. This is for all chapter officers, chapter advisers and those other potential leaders that the chapter wants to invite.

Please contact Cameron Knighton by the 4th of September and let him know who is coming. His phone number is 451-6766.

In addition to great training each participant will be entitled to a free copy of the lodge planbook and a continental breakfast.

Also available for chapters:

Membership list

Registration list

Brotherhood eligibility list

We want to see all of you at the training conference. More details on the hotline at 292-4801.

←COUP TRAIL REUNION→

October 11th at 6:00 pm at Tracy will be the place for the 10th anniversary of Coup Trail. With Bill Eldred and Philip Blaney working on the plans, it will be great!

A personal invitation will be sent to all arrowmen who have participated as candidates or as staff. Dinner, a great program and a chance to meet old friends will be the plans for this first-time event.

A special lodge flap has been issued for those attending. If you can't come there will be an order form in the invitation to purchase one of them for your scrapbook.

Don't miss out on this evening. Remembering Coup Trail and the great times will make it very special.

←FALL POWWOW→

Tim Adams, Lodge Vice Chief, announces that the Fall Powwow will be held at Tracy on the 12th of October, starting at noon. There will be classes in various aspects of Indian Crafts and outfits with a powwow in the evening.

A nominal charge will be made for those wanting dinner. You can register at the door and if you have attended the powwows in the past, you know that a great time will be had by all.

With members of the lodge starting to be recognized at national dance competition, it is a great time and place to be if you are just beginning your interest in this area.

←HERITAGE JAMBORAL→

Top ten reasons to attend the Heritage Jamboral and camp in the lodge area:

10. Last year they had doughnuts after the campfire.
9. Brandon will sign your sash if you couldn't get the National Chief to do it.
8. It is better than watching PBS all night.
7. See what Steve Dupaix will blow up this time.
6. It's a real service opportunity.
5. We'll talk about you if you aren't there.
4. Opportunity to see what a real cow pie looks like.
3. The last chance to attend a Jamboral in a long, long time.
2. You get to spend your money at a great lodge trading post.
1. Dave Halliday will be there!

Bring a few bucks if you want to have breakfast with us.

←BROTHERHOODS→

The new brotherhood schedule will be out in the near future. For now, Brotherhood Ceremonies will be held at Tracy on LECM night at 6:00 pm.

NEWS BRIEFS

Congratulations to our very own Lodge Adviser, David Halliday, who has earned the highly coveted and prestigious Distinguished Service Award. He was presented with the DSA at NOAC this year in front of some 7000 arrowmen from across the nation. The DSA was created to recognize arrowmen, youth and adult, who have rendered outstanding service to the order beyond the lodge level. It was first presented in 1940 to Carrol A. Edson, E. Urner Goodman, and eight others. Since then, only about 500 have been presented. The DSA is a silver arrowhead bearing an arrow pointing upward and right, suspended from a white ribbon embroidered with red arrows, and is worn around the neck. Way to go, Dave!

Also, praise to Troy Rosenlund who took fifth place in the national grass dancing competition. Wow! Good job to everyone who danced at NOAC, everyone did superbly and every El-Ku-Ta dancer made it to the second round!

We would like to welcome our new lodge officers. We're sure they'll do an exceptional job, and we wish them the best of luck.

Everyone reregister a friend! Our lodge needs your help in keeping arrowmen active. Do you know anyone whose registration just ran out? Get them out to chapter meeting and get their registration! (You may use the form on the back of this newsletter). Give the registrations to your chapter chief; he'll bring them to LECM each month. Thanks, and happy reregistering!

Has everyone got their patches yet? This year our lodge has produced some very exciting flaps. Have you seen our national chief flaps? Do you have your centennial set? Or your limited edition framed set? (ooh, aah!) How about your 40th anniversary? And for anyone who's been through Coup Trail, come to the reunion on October 11, 6:00 pm at Tracy and get your picturesque Coup Trail 10th Anniversary flaps. Don't miss out on this once in a century year (as far as El-Ku-Ta Lodge flaps go). You may order all flaps from the service center.

The lodge hotline is a very useful tool for keeping your calendar up to date. When's the last time you called? What might you have missed? It is updated every month, and the number is 292-4801.

Our lodge is in need of committee members and chairmen. We are just reorganizing all of the committees and their heads. If you would like to help on any committee, call the lodge officer who is in charge of that committee. (You can find out who is in charge of what in the July 1, 1996 issue of the Legend. If you no longer have it, I do. You will find my number under Legend Staff, Editor.)
