Smoke Signals From the Chief

You were inducted into our loyal band "not so much for what you have done, but for what you are expected to do," For in taking the Obligation of the Order, you promised, on your honor, "to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others."

This is not an easy pledge to fulfill, for there are few who live a life of cheerful service in our world. For some, the Order will be like a supernova, shining brilliantly for a brief time and soon crumbling to ashes. For others, the Order will kindle a flame of brotherhood, brighter than a thousand suns, lasting throughout eternity.

During your pre-Ordeal, Allowat Sakimi said, "You have impressed upon those who, during the past few weeks, have lived closest to you the sincerity of your purpose to live in accordance with the high ideals of the Scout Promise. The judgement of your fellows can hardly have been mistaken."

Now the time to judge has come. You have entered our Brotherhood. The distinctive pocket flap and sash are now yours. Now you are to face another test; one administered and graded solely by yourself. Will you embrace the traditions and obligations of the Order? "He alone is worthy to wear the arrow who will continue faithfully to serve his fellowmen."

As stated in the Principles" of the Order, we have a great task, to "Give back more to scouting than it has given to me. "As arrowmen, our first obligation is to our home units; but as arrowmen we have the responsibility to promote camping within our units. I feel that our chapters are doing a great service to the istricts through the "Year Round Camping" program, but we still need promotion from within the units themselves. YOU CAN HELP. And as arrowmen, we are obligated to do so.

Yours in brotherhood of Honor Campers
