HONORS FOR TWO ADULT ARROWMEN

Two of our adult Arrowmen were honored on February 10th 1976, and received the Silver Beaver Award:

RAY L. KITCHENS has given exceptional service to boys. He has spent 30 years in Scouting and has received many of the awards that indicate "Quality Service" to youth. He received his District Award of Merit in 1972, was Outstanding Arrowman in 1973, and received the Distinguished Service Award, El-Ku-Ta # 520 in 1975.

He has served as Cubmaster and as OA Chapter Adviser, and is currently OA Assistant Lodge Adviser. Ray serves his community and Scouting in a unique way—leading a group of Indian dancers. Not only do they entertain, but they teach people an appreciation for Indian culture and folklore.

He and his wife have seven children—3 boys. Two are Eagles. He served in the service in World War II.

TONY ZUCCA has been a continuous Scouter since he began as an Assistant Scoutmaster in Long Beach, California, 1954. Since moving to Utah in 1959, he has served as a key unit leader, Scoutmaster, and other positions in building the lives of boys.

He says, "I would rather build guided 'men' than guided missiles." He has been a commissioner, stake Scouting leader, camp program director, and OA chapter adviser. He holds the Arrowhead Honor Award, the Scouter's Award, Scoutmaster's Kay, YMMIA Honor Certificate, and OA Vigil Honor.

Tony is an active church worker, has been president of the Utah Janitorial Contractor's Association, and a director of the Wasatch Aquarium Society.

THE ECHO LOOKS DIFFERENT, DOESN'T IT?

As you have probably noticed, we have a new logo. Our old supply of Echo paper is all used up, so for now we'll print our newsletter in only one color until we come up with a real super-duper. Let us know how you feel about a new format.

NEW VIGIL CHIEF

On February 25th at Granite Park Stake Center, Kevin Bradshaw of South Chapter was elected Vigil Chief. Vigil members have some great things planned.

The ECHO is the official publication of El-Ku-Ta Lodge #520, WWW, Order of the Arrow, an honor camping society of Boy Scouts of America, printed monthly by and for its membership, with permission of Great Salt Lake Council, 525 Foothill Drive, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84113. ## ORDER OF THE ARROW HONORS

AMERICA

OUR COUNTRY'S BICENTENNIAL

In 1832, Samuel Francis Smith, a young divinity student at Andover Theological Seminary in Massachusetts wrote the words for a hymn that he titled "America". Smith borrowed the melody from a German songbook, unaware that it had been used previously for the Prussian national anthem and for the British royal anthem as well. The actual origin of the melody is not known; however, in 1740 a British balladeer had sung it as an "original" song he called "God Save Great George, Our King". Oliver Wendell Holmes, a friend of Smith's praised the lyrics highly, saying: "He wrote My country 'tis of thee. If he had written 'Our' the hymn would not have been as immortal, but that 'My' was a master stroke. Everyone who sings the song at once feels a personal ownership in his native land. The hymn will last as long as the country."

DESIRE PARAMOUNT FOR BEADWORK

At the lodge meeting, Scout Service Center on March 4th, a demonstration of beadwork was given. Sage Chapter presented this interesting show-do. Materials needed are: 1. A desire, 2. Loom, 3. String or Thread, 4. Needles, Wax, Beads, and 5, a Design.

GRACIOUS MUCHERO, RICHARDO!

Because he had so many things going, Richard Scott has decided to resign as editor of the Echo. We want Richard to know how very much we appreciate all he has done for our paper.

SOUTH CHAPTER NEWS

South Chapter meetings are held the 2nd Thursday of each month, at West Jordan High, 1700 West 7550 South, 7:30 p.m. Signs direct you where to go. We have a lot of great ideas for this bicentennial year. We have a dance team going now and will be travelling around, later this year, for dances. The name of our dance team is the Southern Elks.

We need your help in reregistration, fellowships, and campouts. We want you to get in on some good stuff this year!

If there are any questions, please call: Mike Duncan, Chapter Chief, 743-6687; Shaun E. Froelich, Vice Chief, 266-5004; or Mark Culmer, Editor, 255-7888.

WEST CHAPTER ARROWHEAD

January's chapter meeting was centered around Indian Crafts. Anybody who thinks making moccasins is easy ought to try it. It is fun, but you have to have patience and use care. Those of you in West Chapter who want to make genuine Sioux moccasins, come to chapter meeting and get in touch with Kay Peterson. Cost of the leather is $2.50.

It is our great pleasure to introduce Tim Passavant, new editor of the Echo. Tim is a Scout in Troop 266, Atone-ment Lutheran and Westvale Presbyterian Churches, a son of Charles and Jerri Passavant, 3918 South 4220 West, Granger, Utah.

Tim is Senior Patrol Leader in his troop, and attends Westlake Jr. High, where he is on the swimming team. He also plays the piano and is an A-grade student. Chuck, his brother, was the first Eagle in the troop. Tim's Scoutmaster is Roger Clayton.

When Tim was asked what his occupation in life will be, he said, "Oh, boy! That's a toughie! I'm not sure yet what my occupation will be."

Our new editor is a champion swimmer

IT'S ABOUT PAT BERRYMAN

Once each year, the adult Arrowmen have the opportunity of evaluating the performance and service of our young Arrowmen in order to honor one young man who best exemplifies the principles for which the Order of the Arrow stands.

This year it was especially difficult to single out the one young man who best embodies the four purposes of our order, which are:

Lives the Scout Oath and Law in his daily life. Maintains camping traditions and spirit. Promotes Scout camping. Crystallizes the Scout habit of helpfulness into a life purpose of leadership in cheerful service to others.

The Arrowman selected is an Eagle Scout, a Vigil Honor member, served on council camp staff for two years, has been a chapter deputy vice chief for service, attended two National Order of the Arrow conferences. He served as chairman of the 1975 Summer Fellowship, Order of the Arrow Explo-Service project, and Lodge Conclave. He has served as lodge treasurer, lodge vice chief, and was chairman of our lodge banquet. Pat Berryman is a willing worker and an example for all young Arrowmen to respect.

Pat Berryman (right) and his buddy Fred Kidston, Area Chief. In a future issue of the Echo, we will tell you about Fred.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING—WE GOT IT

A fabulous Leadership Training Seminar was held recently at Scout Headquarters. Dave Halliday was an able teacher. Lodge officers and advisers were all edified, and were made aware of areas where improvement can be made. Included in the Echo are some pictures taken at the Leadership Training Seminar.
