CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Words of wisdom from our new chief, Chris Hereth

Chris Hereth
Lodge Chief '97-'98

I am very excited to have this opportunity to serve as your Chief for the upcoming year. I have a great set of officers that are also excited to be in your service. The officers and I have many goals which we want to achieve this year. With your help we will be able to achieve much more than expected.

We will again have our Training Conference on September 6, 1997, 7 a.m. at the Pine Canyon Training Center. I would like to invite all the chapter officers and their advisers to come. There will be a small breakfast, so come for the food. There are new programs and ideas to introduce at this conference, so we need all who can to be in attendance.

I am excited to serve you and hope to make this a wonderful year.

Your Brother,

Chris Hereth

ADVISER'S MINUTE

A message from our lodge adviser, David Halliday

I want to congratulate the officers who were elected at the summer fellowship. They have a lot of excitement and it looks like we will have a tremendous year ahead of us. Jason Accola, the Central Region Chief, said how much he enjoyed his visit to Salt Lake and the Fellowship, and it looks like we will have a number of members as participants or staff at the National Jamboree. Once again, the lodge proves it's worth in providing quality leadership. Now is the time for the chapters to gear up for the coming year and continuing the march toward excellence.

 Order of the Arrow

Congratulations to the new Lodge Officers. Here they are, along with a short description of them and their duties.

LODGE CHIEF

Chris Hereth- Age 17 an Eagle Scout and Vigil Honor member. Chris served as the Ceremonies Chairman last year and served as the chief of the Iriquois Chapter. He has held a number of leadership positions in his chapter and in the lodge.

LODGE VICE-CHIEFS

Gavin Bohne- Age 16, a Brotherhood member and an Eagle Scout. Gavin just finished his term as chief of the Cetan Chapter, building a successful chapter program. Gavin is in charge of ceremonies, Scout-o-Rama, registrations, and chapters 7, 10, 14, and 22.

Mike Duven- Age 16, a Brotherhood member and an Eagle Scout. Mike was recently the chief of the Indian Springs Chapter, has staffed Silver Moccasin for the past three years and served on Steiner Staff for the past two years. Mike is in charge of Ordeals, Elangomats, and the Training Conference. His chapters are 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.

Dustin Fessler- Age 15, a Brotherhood member and an Eagle Scout. Dustin was the chief of the Leke Nimat Chapter and has served as the Lodge Brotherhood Chairman for the past year and a half. Dustin was on Coup Trail Staff this year. Dustin will be in charge of the Banquet, Dance Team, Pow-wow, and chapters 13, 15, 23, and 27.

Marcus Swenson- Age 15, a Brotherhood member and an Eagle Scout. Marcus was the chief of the Chans Chapter and served on Coup Trail Staff this year. He has held several chapter positions of leadership. Marcus is responsible for Fellowship, Coup Trail, and NOAC. His chapters are 24, 25, 26, and 28.

Trevor Thompson- Age 17, an Eagle Scout and Vigil Honor member. Trevor was the Coup Trail Chief this year, has attended the National Conference, and held various chapter positions. He will be in charge of Brotherhood, Section Conference, and Unit Elections. He has chapters 11, 12, 16, 17, and 21.

LODGE SECRETARY

Jeremy Barton- Age 15, an Eagle Scout and Vigil Honor member. Jeremy has served as the chief of the Chans Chapter and staffed Coup Trail for the past three years.

LODGE TREASURER

Chris Fessler- Age 17, a Vigil Honor member and Eagle Scout. Chris served as the Lodge Treasurer last year and has served in various leadership positions.

Congratulations to the past lodge officers on a successful year. Good luck to Brandon Fessler, Tim Adams, Philip Blaney, Cameron Knighton, Troy Rosenlund, Andrew Russell, Josh Jorgensen, and Chris Fessler. Brandon will serve as our Section Chief for the next year, and Philip will be serving with him as the Section Secretary. Chris Fessler will serve another term as our Lodge Treasurer.

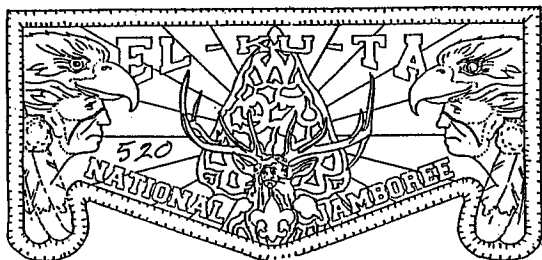

HELP US!

With the installation of new lodge officers, there will be a need for new committee chairmen and committee members. If you are interested in helping out with something, call the vice-chief in charge of that event and let him know. Telephone numbers are on the back page. Thanks!

COMMITTEE REPORTS

←LIMITED EDITION SETS→

1996 was a great year, and the 5 patches that we issued were bound in silver Mylar and mounted in a frame with a certificate of limited editions. A number of these are still available at $140 for a youth and $200 for an adult. Each certificate will bear your name and the number of your set. Since none of the patches (except the centennial set) are available, it should be a good investment as well as a great way to support the lodge.

←JAMBOREE O.A. FLAP→

All registered arrowmen:

The above design is specifically made for Arrowmen in the Jamboree Contingent to wear and trade. It is available by order only and only the amount ordered will be produced.

The arrowhead is in silver mylar and the flap is stunning! You will be proud to wear it as a member from a great lodge. Each flap costs $5.00. In order to process your order fill out the form attached and return it with your check to the Service Center.

Because these flaps will only be available to members not going to the Jamboree in the event that we have left overs, flaps can only be sold to members registered for 1998. If you need to register include $7.00 for the 1998 dues (you get all the benefits for membership with that such as the newsletter, etc.).

You can order any amount that you want. Due to the order process, it will be difficult to add orders at this point.

←TRAINING CONFERENCE→

By Mike Duven

Coming up on September fifth and sixth is something that you won't want to miss out on. This year's training conference will be cooler than ever. All of you chapter and lodge officers who want to know what's going on, come to Tooele on those dates. Lodge chairmen and officers come out on the fifth. On the sixth, chapter officers show up bright and early in the morning. This is one you won't want to miss. We will be unveiling several new plans that will affect the lodge heavily. For information call Mike Duven at 295-0353. Be there!

←REREGISTER→

Jeremy Barton and Gavin Bohne are sending out a call for all expired memberships to be renewed. Look at the mailing label on this issue of The Legend. If the bottom number on the right side is not 1998 or higher, you must reregister to reap the generous benefits of our order. If you do not reregister, this will be the last newsletter you receive. Reregister, so you may wear our lodge flap proudly and attend all of our awesome activities! Fill out the form on the back of this newsletter and send it in right away.

GET INVOLVED!

HEY SCUMBAG! IT'S TIME YOU GOT INVOLVED. IF YOU'RE NOT ALREADY, DO SOMETHING! ASK YOUR CHAPTER CHIEF HOW YOU CAN HELP, OR SERVE ON A LODGE COMMITTEE (SEE PAGE 2).

←HOTLINE→

Have you ever wanted to call a number and hear an old man's monotone voice ramble? Well call our lodge hotline anyway. This is a fast, easy way to acquire information on all of our lodge's great events. If you call now, you will get a recorded message at no cost at all. If you call later, you will get the same deal. So just call, the number is 292-4801.

←CAMP ORDEALS→

by Mike Duven

Congratulations to all of you who went through your ordeal at summer camp this year! I partook in the ones at Steiner and what I saw was great. Thanks to those who helped with the camp ordeals. To the new ordeal members, remember: your ordeal was just the beginning. Get active in your chapters; it gets way cool from here on.

←COUP TRAIL→

by Dustin Fessler

As a first time Coup Trail Staffer, I didn't know what to think. The year I went through I had a blast, but now as an Elangomat it was my responsibility to make sure my clan had fun for eight days, and that's exactly what happened.

Coup Trail gives you a chance to be proud of something: your clan and yourself. The clan method gives you an idea of how it's going to work in your own chapter. Going through the course teaches you leadership skills and then being on staff allows you to use them. It's an experience no one who has ever attended will ever forget. The skills you learn while on the course are never forgotten and are used in situations in life; even other than scouting. I loved every minute of it, and I'll never forget what I felt up there.

If you have never attended Coup Trail, plan to do so next year. It is a great program!

DO YOU NEED TO REREGISTER?

If so, fill out the form on page 8. See the article on page 3 for more information.

←PATCHES CATALOG→

For anyone who has an interest in patches, especially El-Ku-Ta Lodge flaps, we will be publishing a color booklet of all El-Ku-Ta lodge flaps ever issued. They are available at the service center for $6.00. Or you may mail $7.00 ($1.00 for postage) along with a request to the lodge secretary, care of the service center (525 Foothill Blvd., SLC, 84113). What? Did you say color photos? Cool!

←FELLOWSHIP→

Wow! Anybody who was at the Summer Fellowship this year has just recently learned how to have fun. The Fellowship staff worked long and hard to make it a successful event. Thank you especially to Philip Blaney, Devin Swenson, and Bill Eldred. Also, thanks to the kitchen staff and everyone else who was involved.

The week started with a successful ordeal, and the EL-KU-TA CAFE on Tuesday night. What a blast! The Water Wars were wet and wacky, as arrowmen from across our lodge battled it out for supremacy. Congratulations to the dancers who competed in the pow-wow. Friday was especially exciting with Founder's Day, the greased pole, and EL-KU-TA CAFE part II. Thanks to those who participated with booths at Founder's Day. Congratulations to Jared Martin who cinched his way up a Crisco coated log to win the greased pole contest. As a prize, he received over ninety dollars in cash and $110 in merchandise. The new lodge officers were elected and installed as well.

We'll see everyone at the Fellowship next year. Thanks to our radio sponsor, KFRG the Frog. Everyone have a great year, and remember: Just frog it!

←DANCE TEAM→

by Weston Rausch

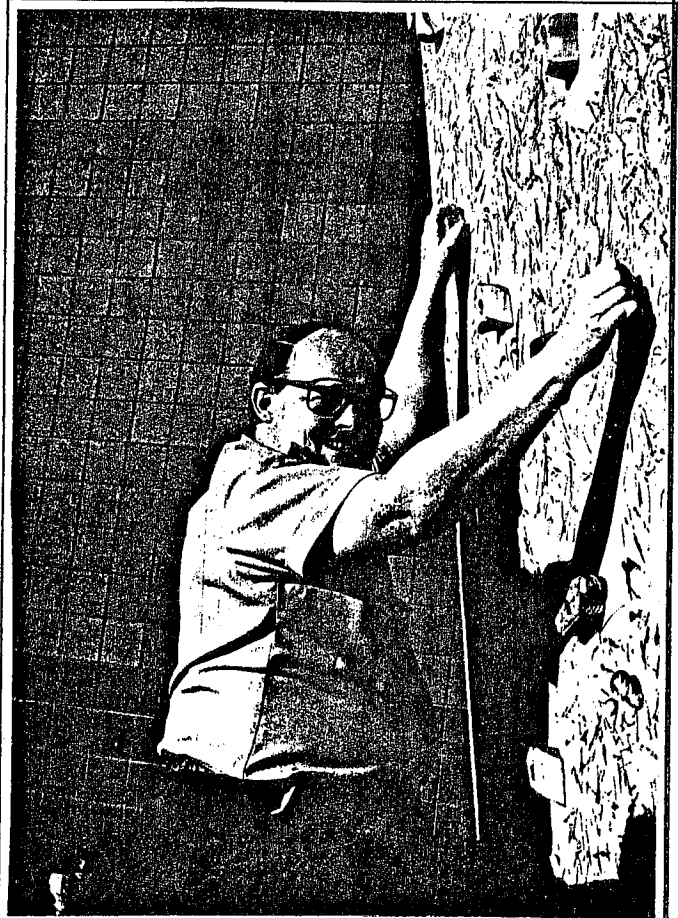

The Dance Team went really well this year, and my turn as the Dance Team Chief is almost over. The dance team had a great time this year going to chapter meetings and eagle courts of honor to perform for many people.

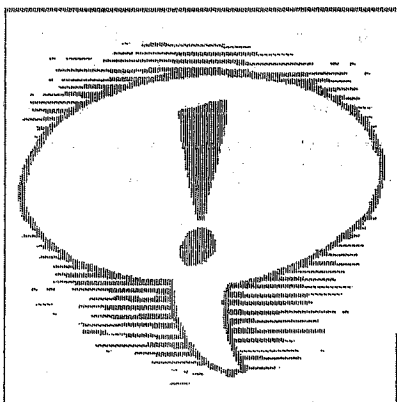

If you would like to join the dance team come to one of next years LECM's and we can get you started. If you have questions, call Weston Rausch at 967-2043.

←NOTEWORTHY→

Congratulations to our ARROWMEN OF THE YEAR. Every year our lodge honors one adult and one youth who have given outstanding time and effort to the betterment of our lodge. This year's youth arrowman of the year was Mike Duven, and the adult award went to Von McCallister. The lodge would like to thank them both for being "unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others".

This photo was submitted to The Legend by Von McCallister. Please notice the skill with which David E. Halliday, Lodge Adviser, finds his grip on Macque Chapter's climbing wall at Section Conference. He looks good, doesn't he? If you have any interesting photos, please give them to Andrew Russell at LECM.
